

Land of Pleasure

Arrangement by Roger & Melanie Hoffman

Southern Folk Hym

There is a land of plea - sure, Where streams of joy for - ev - er roll.
My way is full of dan - ger, But 'tis the path that leads to God.

2nd verse

The first system of music features a treble and bass staff in 6/4 time with a key signature of two flats. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

'Tis there I have my trea - sure, And there I long to rest my soul.
And like a faith - ful sol - dier, I'll march a - long the heav'n - ly road.

The second system of music continues the melody and bass line from the first system. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

Long dark - ness dwelt a - round me, With scarce - ly once a cheer - ing ray.
Now I must gird my sword on, My breast - plate, hel - met and my shield.

The third system of music continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

But since my Sav - iour found me, A lamp has shown a - long my way.
And fight the hosts of Sa - tan, Un - til I reach the heav'n - ly field.

The fourth system of music concludes the piece. It includes a rit. (ritardando) marking above the treble staff and below the bass staff. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

f
Soon the arch - an - gel's trum - pet shall shake the globe from pole to pole.

f
And all the wheels of na - ture Shall in a mo - ment cease to roll.

f
Then we shall see the Sav - iour, With shin - ing ranks of an - gels come

f
To ex - e - cute his judg - ment, And take his ran - somed peo - ple home.
